1 KILLED 5 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Automobile Struck by Fast
Train at Crossing at Tuckerman

Cloyce Bonner, aged 12, was killed, two girls were dangerously injured and three other members of an automobile party were slightly hurt about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Tuckerman, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by fast passenger train No. 3.

Mr. Bonner, who was driving the car, failed to see the approaching train, as he was watching a buggy that was just ahead of his car, and was upon the track before he was aware of his danger. He speeded up his engine in an effort to beat the train across the track but failed by a few inches, and the train struck the rear end of the car, throwing it several feet.

The engineer stopped the train and the injured persons were taken aboard the train and carried to Newport. The boy died from his injuries just after being placed on the operating table in a sanitarium in Newport. His body was badly mangled.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonner were only slightly injured, but their two daughters, Bertha, aged 15, and Pearl, aged 17, were seriously injured. It is thought that they will recover, however.

The party left the Bonner home near Newport about noon to attend a funeral near Tuckerman and were returning home when the accident occurred.

LAD SERIOUSLY ILL FROM CUT FOOT

Paul Wayman, the little son of Mrs. Nora Wayman, is dangerously ill from blood poisoning and tetanus. Several days ago while playing in the yard at his home he stepped on a broken fruit jar, cutting a deep gash in his foot. Later, blood poison and tetanus set up and he has been in a critical condition for the past few days.

BRIDAL TIPS FOR "SOON TO BE'S" IN NEW PLAY

Prospective brides may find valuable hints for happiness in "A Temperamental Wife," starring Constance Talmadge and which will be seen at the Royal next Tuesday night.

Taking the part of Billie Billings, pretty, wealthy and afflicted with an unreasonably jealous nature, Constance Talmadge has a novel assortment of experiences both before and after her marriage to the prim Senator Newton. Rather sickly before marriage, by the time the husband has experienced some of his jealous wife's eccentricities he is in a most vigorous physical shape and able to whip his weight in wildcats.

BEGIN PICKING COTTON

Several farmers are starting picking cotton this week and three loads of the fleecy staple have been delivered to the gin here. The gin will be started tomorrow and the three bales will be ginned.

The first cotton brought to the gin was brought in by W. C. Hurley who farms on the Fitzhugh place. The other bales brought in to be ginned were brought by Zell Alford and Tom Moore.

DOGS BETTER THAN BABIES

I wonder what the thousands of homeless families now living in tents will do when winter comes upon them?

I wonder, too, where young married couples with a new baby, or a pair of little ones, are going to find shelter in the cities, as it has now become the well nigh unfeeling rule of landlords to refuse to rent to persons with children.

Think of lap dogs being accepted without question as tenants, while wretched little sister or friendly little brother are barred.

Some landlords even put this satanic and immoral clause in their leases: "No babies permitted."

"Suffer little children to come unto me," said Jesus "and forbid them not." Woe to the nation that does forbid them, for its downfall is certain.

I know of one happy young couple who were ordered to move in dead of winter because a little son had been born to them.

On the floor above them was a woman who kept poodle dogs but had no children.

She and her dogs were allowed to remain without question. Think of dogs being preferred to babies, in a supposedly christian civilized land, while young parents and their baby are turned out of house and home.

Small children are destructive; it is a necessary part of their development. They must romp and race and tear, and where they do there are footprints and finger prints, like those of pittypat and tippytoe in Eugene Field's delightful child poem.

These same landlords 40 or 50 years back were happy, careless, go-lucky little folk of their day. They made trouble for somebody. What if to be born then had meant that their parents and their belongings would be hustled out into the streets; what if lap dogs were then thought better of than babies and were more welcome?

And do these same landlords owe no childhood debt to the world? What do you think?

No place is a home that bars children. Let those who rent homes build sensible apartments that can be well kept despite the marks of tiny fingers. I am not sure but that the time has come when in the interest of humanity and the race and nations, the law should prescribe that no man be refused a home and shelter because he has a wife and children. Every child is entitled to a home.

MRS. W. T. THORNTON.

Feed him to the buzzards! That's what the gang attempted to do to Joe Ryan in one episode of "Hidden Dangers" when they tied him to a rope and left him hanging in mid-air from the side of a great cliff. See the second episode at the Royal Saturday night.

The days are getting shorter and the Saturday night show will start at 7:30 at the Royal. During the week the show will start at 8 o'clock.

PICK COTTON AS FAST AS OPEN

There is an urgent need this fall to pick cotton as fast as it is ready and while it is white; to gather it free from trash and dirt; to gin it dry, clean and without gin cuts and to put it as soon as ginned under such shelter that it cannot become stained or damaged in any other way until it is sold and delivered.

Five million bales principally of undesirable cotton have been carried over. Much of it is stained, moldy, matted or otherwise so damaged or so short that it cannot be used in making cloth or other cotton products of high grade.

This enormous quantity of low grade cotton that has been carried over is not wanted by the spinners in this country and in Europe because the people do not want the goods that can be made from it. It is a strong force towards pounding down the price of this year's crop.

Every bale of new cotton damaged in any way will add to the great quantity of undesirable cotton now on hand and will help to cut down still more the price that growers will get for the new crop.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Independence Baptist Association was held with the First Baptist church at Batesville Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

W. M. Thompson was chosen moderator and Rev. G. L. Fink secretary of the Association.

The meeting was a most pleasant and harmonious one and was very much enjoyed by the messengers and others in attendance. The reports of the messengers from the various churches showed that a good year's work had been done.

The next meeting of the Association will be held at Cave City.

HONOR INDEPENDENCE COUNTY LADY

The Democratic State Convention at Little Rock this week adopted a resolution enlarging the State Central Committee by the addition of one lady member from each congressional district.

Mrs. I. J. Matheny of Batesville was elected as the new member from this congressional district.

ELOPING WIFE IS LOCATED AT HOTEL

It was midnight at a country hotel. Wife, who had become peeved at hubby, had eloped with a "handsome man," and they had taken adjoining rooms at the hotel. Wife had aroused the neighborhood by almost scratching the man bald-headed because he tried to steal a kiss—which he thought he was entitled to because she eloped with him.

Then hubby arrives—hot under the collar and cussing on all twelve cylinders—and makes straight for wife's room. The brave hotel clerk who is also the village constable grabs his trusty six-shooter and makes for the scene. This is only one of the many high spots in the Constance Talmadge comedy-drama, "The Temperamental Wife," at the Royal Tuesday, September 21.

OLIVE THOMAS DEAD

Olive Thomas, noted motion picture actress, died in Paris, France, last Friday, where she and her husband, Jack Pickford, were spending their vacation. The body will be returned to America for burial.

G. O. Magness returned this morning from Little Rock where he attended the Democratic State Convention.

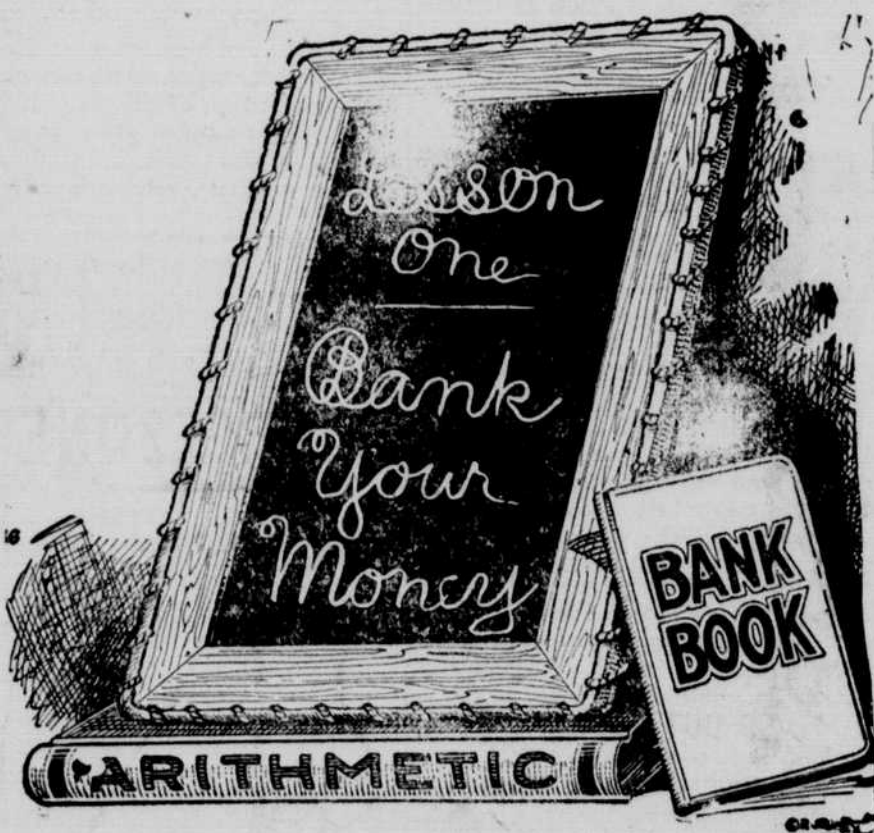

BOY STRUCK BY AUTO SERIOUSLY INJURED

Paul Lindsey Seriously Injured in Auto Accident But Will Recover

Paul Lindsey, eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lindsey, was struck by a car driven by James Dearing late Thursday afternoon and was seriously injured.

Paul Lindsey, and Lovey Pridmore were riding bicycles but had dismounted near the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Rawlings. The boys knew the car was coming but seemed to have misjudged its distance and young Lindsey started to cross the street immediately in front of the car. James Dearing who was driving the car, attempted to dodge the boy and gave the car such a sharp turn that it almost turned over. The boy's clothing was caught in the car and he was thrown against the ground with such force that a deep gash several inches long was cut on his head, causing him to bleed profusely. He was severely injured on the back of his head and it was feared for some time that his skull was fractured. He was in a serious condition for some time but is now improving nicely.

The accident seems to have been unavoidable and no blame attaches to anyone, according to parties who witnessed it. Young Dearing was not driving fast and had blown his horn several times, it is said, and it was evident that the lad misjudged the distance of the approaching car when he attempted to cross the street.

The Buck's Stoves have been sold in Batesville by the same firm for over forty years.

They have been giving satisfaction for the past forty years and are still giving service and satisfaction today.

They are built of new, gray, southern pig iron. A material that heats up quickly, looks good, will not rust like seel ranges, and will last for years.

They have large fireboxes, that will take in long sticks of wood. The ovens are large and well proportioned. The ovens are ventilated, and are built so that your food will cook the same in all parts of the oven. You do not have to turn your pans around when you cook in a Buck's Oven.

Before you buy, come in and let us show you a Bucks Stove or Range. We have them in nearly all sizes, and can give you the size you need.
